European Immunization Week 2016

Sunday, April 24, 2016 (All day)

European Immunization Week (EIW) is celebrated across the WHO European Region every April. It aims to raise awareness of the importance of immunization for people's health and well-being. Activities in 2016 will focus on the progress and challenges in the Region's concerted effort to eliminate measles and rubella. EIW is going to be celebrated on 24-30 April 2016.
